

We're Expecting!

To continue to meet the most pressing needs of our neighbors and to build meaningful, lasting change for families and individuals struggling to make ends meet, Mary's Center has embarked on a journey to increase our capacity to serve.

We are pleased to announce The Promise of Tomorrow-- Mary's Center's campaign to provide an additional 15,000 families with quality care and support through three strategic initiatives: a new comprehensive health center in Northeast D.C., a major upgrade and expansion of our behavioral health services, and our first ever pharmacy!

Great Food for a Great Cause

The 4th Annual Taste of Adams Morgan is right around the corner. On Tuesday, May 3rd, DC's most popular restaurants will open their doors from 5-9pm offering tastings of signature dishes to ticket holders.

And the fun doesn't stop there. Swing by Roofer's Union at 9pm for our first ever Taste After Party for all night happy hour specials!

Preventing Child Abuse, Protecting a Generation

by Maria Gomez, President and CEO

National Child Abuse Prevention Month is dedicated to acknowledging the importance of families and communities in working together to prevent child abuse and neglect.

Everyday we at Mary's Center use our Social Change Model to keep families healthy and supported in order to break the cycle of violence.

Mary's Center Runs on Volunteers

From quarterly baby showers beautifully led by Mary's Center Ambassadors, to countless facility improvement projects and special events, our volunteers go above and beyond to keep us running. Thank you!

"I enjoy volunteering at Mary's Center as I feel part of a family; a family that emanates joy, passion and empathy." – Steve Patrick
