

The Promise of Tomorrow

A CAMPAIGN FOR
WELLNESS AND OPPORTUNITIES FOR ALL

What is The Promise of Tomorrow?

This month, Mary's Center launched a new campaign to expand our quality care and much needed services to more families and individuals. We've titled the campaign The Promise of Tomorrow and throughout the month of June we'll be sharing what it's all about with you.

5th Annual Golf Classic a Hole-In-One

Rain or shine, any day is a great day for golf. Add in a silent auction, a mobile Nike gift shop, and 140 golfers, and Mary's Center's 5th Annual Golf Classic became a day to remember!

Many thanks to all of our golfers, sponsors and volunteers who came together to make this day a success. With your help we were able to raise $162,000!

Healthcare Access for Women: The Battle's Not Over Yet

by Dara Koppelman, Chief Nursing Officer

We are proud to be an integral part of improving the health of the DC metro area for nearly three decades. However, there is still work to be done to ensure that women have total access to the health care they need.

In recognition of National Women's Health Week (May 8- 14), click here to learn from Dara Koppelman, our Chief Nursing Officer, on how a new proposed plan can change the healthcare landscape in DC.

Help When It Matters Most

"Access. Access. Access."

That's what Marisa Parrella, Manager of Mary's Center's School-Based Mental Health Program, had to say about the importance of counselors in a school setting. Read more about how this intervention makes a difference.

To Have and To Hold

There's is no shortage of love and hope here at Mary's Center.

Alba, a Mary's Center patient, recently married the man of her dreams, Byron, in her hospital room where she is being treated for leukemia.

"In the midst of everything, our patients have hope. They want to be well. Love is what makes miracles happen." - Rosa Goyes,
